Analysis on Whole-Process People's Democracy: Structure, Procedure and Function

LI Ying-luo

School of Marxism Studies, Beijing Institute of Technology, Beijing, 100081

Abstract: Whole-process people's democracy shows its characteristics of universality, authenticity and effectiveness and they are also features of socialist democracy with Chinese characteristics. This paper offers an in-depth description of whole-process people's democracy from the perspective of structure, procedure and function and aims to grasp its pattern, mechanism and value. From the perspective of structure, whole-process people's democracy embeds in the system which ensures that the people are masters of their own country, and constructs a systematic, holistic and collaborative democratic institution. From the perspective of procedure, whole-process people's democracy corresponds to the whole policy circle with the capability of improving the democracy quality by the characteristic of whole-process accountability. From the perspective of function, the whole-process people's democracy works on responding to people's demands and promoting people's all-round the system of socialism with Chinese characteristics.
